

“Giving people the Bible’s answers, which they may not at all want to hear, to questions about life that people in their particular time and place are asking, in language and forms they can comprehend, and through appeals and arguments with force they can feel, even if they reject them.”

– Tim Keller

“Giving people the Bible’s answers, which they may not at all want to hear, to questions about life that people in their particular time and place are asking, in language and forms they can comprehend, and through appeals and arguments with force they can feel, even if they reject them.”

– Tim Keller

1. Giving people the Bible’s answers.

“Giving people the Bible’s answers, which they may not at all want to hear, to questions about life that people in their particular time and place are asking, in language and forms they can comprehend, and through appeals and arguments with force they can feel, even if they reject them.”

– Tim Keller

1. Giving people the Bible’s answers.
2. To questions about life that a particular groups of people are asking.

“Giving people the Bible’s answers, which they may not at all want to hear, to questions about life that people in their particular time and place are asking, in language and forms they can comprehend, and through appeals and arguments with force they can feel, even if they reject them.”

– Tim Keller

1. Giving people the Bible’s answers.
2. To questions about life that a particular groups of people are asking.
3. In a comprehensible language and form.

“Giving people the Bible’s answers, which they may not at all want to hear, to questions about life that people in their particular time and place are asking, in language and forms they can comprehend, and through appeals and arguments with force they can feel, even if they reject them.”

– Tim Keller

1. Giving people the Bible’s answers.
2. To questions about life that a particular groups of people are asking.
3. In a comprehensible language and form.
4. Through forceful appeals and arguments.

1 Corinthians 9:12

...but we endure anything rather than put an obstacle in the way of the gospel of Christ.

“Giving people the Bible’s answers, which they may not at all want to hear, to questions about life that people in their particular time and place are asking, in language and forms they can comprehend, and through appeals and arguments with force they can feel, even if they reject them.”

– Tim Keller

1. Giving people the Bible’s answers.
2. To questions about life that a particular groups of people are asking.
3. In a comprehensible language and form.
4. Through forceful appeals and arguments.

1 Corinthians 1:22-25

For Jews demand signs and Greeks seek wisdom, but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and folly to Gentiles, but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

Hebrews 2:14

Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same things...

1. Knowledge of Gospel

1. Knowledge of Gospel
2. Knowledge of audience

1. Knowledge of Gospel
2. Knowledge of audience
3. Love for audience

1. Knowledge of Gospel
2. Knowledge of audience
3. Love for audience
4. Love for Gospel